LEONARD DOWNES TO RETIRE

That well-known, pot-bellied, cigar smoking, bank cashier, Leonard H. Downes is retiring on September 30. In honor of his 20 years of service at Gallaudet, the business office is giving Lenny a retirement party on Thursday, September 30, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. in the Student Union Lounge. The entire College is cordially invited to bid Lenny farewell.

NOTED POET COMING

On Wednesday, September 29 at 4:00 p.m. in HMB 213, Daniel Mark Epstein, an American poet, whose works have appeared in many leading journals, and author of No Vacancies In Hell, will read and sing selected poems. Poems will be simultaneously interpreted literally and then dramatized in sign language by students selected by Gil Eastman, chairman of the drama department. The program is co-sponsored by the Cultural Affairs committee and the English department. All interested persons are invited.

GALLAUDET FOOTBALL ON T.V.

Last Saturday, NBC Television was on campus to take footage of Gallaudet's football game for the network's T.V. program Grandstand, which is aired every Sunday. As of this writing, it has not been announced when Grandstand plans to show highlights of the Bison football game but we will inform you as soon as we receive word.

COLLEGE DIRECTORY DELAYED

Due to the MSSD and Physical Plant moves, the Faculty/Staff/Student directory will not be ready for distribution until the end of November.

REMINDER

--Book sale is in progress in the EMG Library. Sale ends this Friday, September 24.

--Classes have been cancelled for September 22 and 23 so that faculty, students and interested staff members can attend the Reaccreditation Review meeting.
